

RICK HOLLAND

OBJECTIVE

A Graphic Design position where advanced graphic and creative skills will produce effective design solutions.

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

Graphic Designer: Translates ideas into visible media effectively. Possesses both a profound typographic discernment and an exacting discrimination of space relations.

- Mastery of the Adobe programs: Photoshop, Illustrator, PageMaker, and InDesign.
- Well versed in HTML, Adobe Dreamweaver, Flash, and GoLive.
- Fluent with both PC and Macintosh platforms.
- Trained public speaker. Communicates with confidence and ease.

RELEVANT SKILLS

ART AND GRAPHIC DESIGN

- Awarded the Scholastic gold key for excellence in the field of art.
- Received formal training in the use of the programs, Adobe Photoshop, PageMaker, Illustrator, InDesign, and GoLive at SUNY New Paltz.
- Artwork displayed in various shows and museums.

COMPUTER EXPERTISE

- Proficient in HTML, Adobe Dreamweaver, Flash and GoLive.
- Highly competent with Microsoft Word, and PowerPoint.

SOCIAL ENGINEERING

- Graduate of the Toastmasters International public speaking program. Formally trained to speak in front of large audiences.
- Is graceful in expression and possesses an affable demeanor.

EXHIBITS & AWARDS

- Contest at the Hyde Museum, Glens Falls NY, received two awards.
- Exhibit at the Fort Edward Museum of Art, Fort Edward NY.
- Display at the New York State Teachers Convention, Albany NY.
- Scholastic contest, Gold Key received, Albany NY.

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Graphic Designer / Marketing Assistant for BRAT Marketing, New Paltz NY. 2005-Present
- Chess Instructor for the Queens Gateway After School Program, Jamaica NY. 2004-2005
- In-house Designer for Catskill Art & Office Supply, Poughkeepsie NY. 2003

EDUCATION

The State University of New York at New Paltz, BA Studio Arts: Graphic Design. Minor: Philosophy. 2005
Activities & Positions: The Philosophy Club, Executive board member
The New Paltz Chess Club, President